

The root word of the week is ...

Form

The root form comes from the Latin language. It means "shape".

Conform – To follow the order, form or shape of a group.

Perform – To act, as on stage, in shape of form to create a character, image or sound.

Formation – The act or process of forming a shape or synchronised movement.

Love our Language

