

The root word of the week is ...

Hospit

The root hospit comes from the Latin language. It means “to host”.

Hospital – A place where the sick or injured can be treated and recover.

Hospitality – A sector of industry which includes hotels and other leisure facilities. To host a reception for friends, visitors or even strangers.

Inhospitable – to be unfriendly or unwelcoming. Harsh or very unpleasant environment to live in.

Love our Language

