

The root word of the week is ...

Graph

The root Graph comes from the Greek Language. It means 'to write.'

Graphic – involving the written word, or can also mean to be written in detail.

Autograph – a person's signature written by hand.

Graphite – a soft black form of carbon used in lead pencils to write with.

Love our Language

