

The root word of the week is ...

Photo

The root photo comes from the Greek language. it means "light".

Photograph – An image created using light waves.

photosynthesis – The process a plant does to create food using, among other things, light.

Photosensitive – Being sensitive to light.

