

Prayers for the week - love

Tuesday 3rd May

Lord

Give us the strength this week to do the work you have set for us.

Let our words and actions reflect the love you have for us all.

St Joseph – Pray for us

Wednesday 4th May

Lord

We begin a new day and a canvas not yet painted. Help us to paint today as a reflection of the glory of your love. In those moments when we feel like giving up, be with us.

St Joseph – Pray for us

Thursday 5th May

We offer our thoughts and prayers and ask Mary to take them to the Lord as we say;

Hail, Mary, full of grace,
the Lord is with thee.

Blessed art thou amongst women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.

Holy Mary, Mother of God,
pray for us sinners,
now and at the hour of our death.
Amen.

Friday reflection

After the meal Jesus said to Simon Peter, 'Simon son of John, do you love me more than these others do?' He answered, 'Yes Lord, you know I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my lambs.' A second time he said to him, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' He replied, 'Yes, Lord, you know I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Look after my sheep.' Then he said to him a third time, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' Peter was upset that he asked him the third time, 'Do you love me?' and said, 'Lord, you know everything; you know I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my sheep.'

Jesus asked him to repeatedly do you love me. Peter replied yes.

In our everyday lives we are asked to treat people with love, but it's not always the easiest thing to do. People may have said nasty things about us or they may have treated us unfairly.

However, in all world religions, not just Christianity, we are asked to treat people with love and kindness.

Imagine a world where all of us treat each other with respect. That world would be infinitely better than the one we have now. All of the man made problems which are in our lives, the majority would disappear.

We cannot changed the world completely, but we do have it in our control to make our community a kinder and more caring place. Let us show this through our thoughts, words and actions that we can love one another.

Not all of us can do great things.
But we can do small things with great love.
